

Diversity Resources for Postdocs

NC State University

NC State General Resources

NC State values equity and inclusion across campus. Several units are devoted to providing resources to promote diversity among faculty, staff, and students.

- Office for Institutional Equity and Diversity (OIED)
- Equal Opportunity Institution (EOI)
- National Coalition Building Institute (NCBI)

External General Resources

There are a number of organization in Raleigh and the surrounding areas that postdocs across various backgrounds, and provide resources for establishing successful careers.

- National Postdoctoral Association (NPA)
- MinorityPostdoc.org
- MySciNet

Women

External and internal organizations offer resources for leadership, education and advocacy on issues related to gender equality, especially within STEM fields.

- National Postdoctoral Association
- NC State Women's Center
- NC State's Staff Women's Network
- MinorityPostdoc.org
- MySciNet

Underrepresented Minorities

Many organizations on campus provide networking and funding opportunities, mentoring, and social activities for underrepresented minority students, staff, and faculty.. .

- African-American Cultural Center (AACC)
- Minorities in Agriculture, Natural Resources, and Related Sciences (MANRRS)
- Multicultural Student Affairs

GLBT

The GLBT Center and regional organization provides support and networking opportunities as well as training and mentoring opportunities for both members of the GLBT community and its allies.

- Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender (GLBT) Center
- National Organization of Gay and Lesbian Scientist and Technical Professionals (NOGLSTP)
- LGBT Center of Raleigh
- Triangle Area Gay Scientists (TAGS)

Additional Resources

Other institutional and national postdoc resources include:

- Disability Services Office (DSO)
- Office of International Services
- Alliance of Building Faculty Diversity in the Mathematical Sciences