Purpose

The primary objective of the national Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi is the recognition and encouragement of superior scholarship in all academic disciplines. The Society is convinced that in recognizing and honoring those persons of good character who have excelled in scholarship, in whatever field, it will stimulate others to strive for excellence. Moreover, the Society serves the interests of the student capable of excellence by insistence that in order to acquire a chapter of Phi Kappa Phi, an institution provide the means and atmosphere conducive to academic excellence.

Fun Facts about Phi Kappa Phi

- Founded in 1897 at the University of Maine, Phi Kappa Phi is the nation's oldest, largest, and most selective all-discipline honor society.
- The Society's mission is "to recognize and promote academic excellence in all fields of higher education and to engage the community of scholars in service to others."
- The motto of Phi Kappa Phi is Philosophía Krateítō Phōtōn, translated "let the love of learning rule humanity."
- Those elected to membership include upper 7.5 percent last-term juniors (having completed at least seventy-two semester hours) and upper 10 percent seniors, along with outstanding graduate students, faculty, professional staff, and alumni.
- Since its founding, more than 1 million scholars have been inducted into Phi Kappa Phi.
- Approximately 3,000 faculty and staff volunteers give of their time to serve as officers of local Phi Kappa Phi chapters.
- More than 300 chapters of Phi Kappa Phi exist on the campuses of colleges and universities across the United States, Puerto Rico, and the Philippines.
- The Society's official symbols include the Phi Kappa Phi key, ribbon, and seal.
- More than $700,000 in national and local scholarships is awarded annually.

Study Abroad Grant Competition

As part of its efforts to recognize and encourage academic achievements in all disciplines, The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi is pleased to sponsor this Study Abroad Grant competition.

The Phi Kappa Phi Board of Directors encourages qualified undergraduates in all areas of study to apply. The deadline for applications is April 1, 2012.

The program is designed to help support students as they seek knowledge and experience in their academic fields by studying abroad.

Each year, Phi Kappa Phi awards 50 Study Abroad grants of $1,000 each.

$500.00 Love of Learning Awards

Available

The online application is available now for the Phi Kappa Phi Love of Learning Award. The deadline is June 30, 2012.

Love of Learning Awards are available to active (dues paying) members seeking funding for a wide range of post baccalaureate studies and/or career development opportunities.

The competition is open to all active Phi Kappa Phi members who have completed their baccalaureate studies by application submission and have not received a Fellowship or Award of Excellence Grant.

If you meet the above criteria and need funding for graduate or professional studies, doctoral dissertation research, continuing education, career development/training, and/or career- or academic-related travel, apply for a Love of Learning Award today!

If you have questions about the award or the application process, contact Maria Davis, National Marketing Development Manager, at LoveofLearning@PhiKappaPhi.org or call 800.804.9880, ext. 35.

In Memory of George Barthalmus

Dr. George Barthalmus taught over 16,000 students in zoology and biology at NCSU and won three University Outstanding Teaching Awards, the NCSU Distinguished Alumni Undergraduate Professor Award, and the Outstanding Academic Adviser Award in the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences. He retired in 2001, but later returned to campus to serve as interim director of the University Honors Program.

At the time of his death in 2011, he was director of the Office of Undergraduate Research. Barthalmus wrote murder-mystery novels set on college campuses and used the proceeds to support the George T. and Marina T. Barthalmus Life Sciences Scholarship Endowment. He served as president of the NCSU Chapter of the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi in 2000/2001, and throughout his career he was a passionate advocate for students.
