FLE 402 has been discontinued

Some graduate programs have previously required FLE 402 (Research and technical writing for international graduate students) for provisional admission when their English language scores did not meet the minimum requirement for admission. The Department of Foreign Languages has informed us that in Fall 2022 they will discontinue this course offering. As a result, Dr. Katie Homar is planning to offer a non-credit writing workshop series in the Fall. Please contact her (kshomar@ncsu.edu) if you have any questions or need more information. We can no longer accept the requirement of FLE 402 for provisional or full admission.

April 15th Resolution

Students who are given an offer of admission with support are not required to respond with their intention to attend until April 15th. Based on the CGS Resolution deadline departments cannot require a student to give an answer prior to April 15th. A link to the Council of Graduate Schools April 15th Resolution can be viewed here.
